

JEFFREY L. OSTER

PARTNER

Jeffrey Oster, known for being an aggressive litigator, concentrates his practice on general negligence, premises liability, motor vehicle liability, trucking, sexual assault, professional liability, medical malpractice, employment law and several other practice areas. He has also investigated potential instances of insurance fraud for several clients.

Jeffrey has experience at all levels of case management, from pre-litigation advisement and opinion through settlement, arbitration and mediation and, if necessary, trial. He is also skilled in general contract matters, negotiations, and government affairs. He has served as a member of emergency response teams for various national clients, as well as regional coordinating counsel for a multinational energy corporation. He has obtained numerous defense verdicts at arbitration and/or trial.

Jeffrey is both a creator and an accredited presenter of various Continuing Education Programs directed towards other attorneys, risk managers, and claims/safety professionals. In his down time, he enjoys spending time with his children, exploring new places, visiting the beach, and finding a new book to read.
